

COLIN MACNAB

EXECUTIVE VP OF PROPERTY & CASUALTY

J. Colin MacNab joined the MJ Insurance team in 1993 and brings with him over 25 years of experience. As executive vice president of our Property & Casualty division, Colin oversees activities in our large commercial department as well as serving as risk management consultant to our Japanese-owned Business, Manufacturing, Construction and Service industries. Colin also sits on MJ's Value Creation Team – a team charged with providing the strategic direction for MJ in alignment with our purpose.

Colin is passionate about ensuring the success of his clients through MJ's development and growth into new technology and risk consulting programs. Colin maintains a proactive approach when working one-on-one with his clients. He strives to continually focus on building long-lasting relationships by keeping open lines of communication as well as truly learning about his clients needs as a business. His unique experience with alternative risk transfer, including captive formulation, enables him to design risk management solutions for unique client needs.

Outside of MJ, Colin and his wife are busy cheering for their children in sports and other activities. Colin also loves to golf and would love to play Augusta National one day.
