

JULIE BURRIS

CLIENT EXECUTIVE

Julie Burris joined the MJ Insurance team in 1991 as an account executive in our Employee Benefits department. She began her insurance career in 1987 in Medicare Supplement and Individual Health Plan sales for BCBS and has built a diverse resume of experience within the healthcare marketplace. Her nearly 30 years of industry experience has allowed her to become a true leader within our ever-growing Benefits Consulting practice.

Over her career, Julie has specialized in working with mid-market and large employer groups across a wide range of industries. She works closely with her team to develop strategic plans for clients' health and wellness programs along with a focus on project management, plan document review/analysis and carrier relations.

While Julie loves her work, her real passion is her family. Julie and her husband are excited to start spending more time out east as their daughter begins her career in New York City. In addition, Julie would love to spend time out west traveling to the Grand Canyon and other national parks. She is passionate about health and loves to exercise. Julie is also a total fashionista and a huge tennis fan! Her favorite athlete is Roger Federer.
