

CHERYL BURTNER

CLIENT ADVOCATE

Cheryl Burtner brings over 40 years of experience with personal insurance and underwriting to MJ, where she currently serves as a client advocate in our Personal Insurance department. Joining the MJ team in 2004, Cheryl previously worked as a personal lines underwriter for Indiana Insurance Company. Her expertise lies in homeowners, valuable articles, automobiles, watercraft, personal umbrella and many other specialty coverages.

Cheryl works to create customized insurance programs for MJ's Personal Insurance clientele. She and the Personal Insurance team take a detailed, personalized approach with their clients to build a thorough understanding of their needs and a custom plan to meet them. Her extensive experience on both the agency and the carrier side of the business has been integral to her success here at MJ.

When Cheryl is not in the office, she is probably enjoying the great outdoors. She loves to garden, camp, hike and bike. Cheryl also spends as much time as she can with her three grandchildren that live in Seattle. Not many people know that Cheryl has a serious talent for baking carrot cakes!
