RISK TRANSFER SPECIALIST

Brianne Carrillo joined the MJ team in August of 2018 as a risk transfer specialist. Before coming to MJ, Brianne was an executive account specialist for Charles James Cayias Insurance, Inc. where she was responsible for handling contract negotiations and writing business risks covering a multitude of industries and various risk classes. Brianne brings over a decade of industry experience to the team.

As a risk transfer specialist, Brianne and her team partner with the analytics, risk services, and client advocacy teams to create and implement risk transfer strategies that best correlate with the interest of the client. She loves working at MJ because of our purpose, the people and the culture that can't be found anywhere else.

Apart from providing the absolute best service to our clients, Brianne has other hobbies and interests outside of the workplace. She's an avid Arizona Cardinals fan and loves fitness and fashion. Whenever time allows, Brianne enjoys relaxing and drawing whatever comes to mind.
