

CINDY JENKINS

MANAGER, SURETY + BONDS

Cindy Jenkins joined the MJ Insurance team in 1998 as surety manager. She has widespread experience in working with business administration, customer service and surety bonding with specific emphasis on the construction contract segment of the business. With nearly 30 years of experience, Cindy has grown to become a true leader and invaluable member of the team.

Cindy is responsible for building and maintaining effective client relationships and providing the best possible client service. She assists in creating and implementing department service procedures to maximize workflow within the surety and construction practice group as well as managing, training, and developing members on the surety team. Job responsibilities are changing every minute and Cindy is grateful to manage a team of hardworking and motivated coworkers.

Outside of work, Cindy spends time with her daughters and rescue dog Milo, and enjoys being outside, hiking and traveling. One day, Cindy hopes to travel the entire world. Until then, she's hoping for a summer trip to Europe.
