

CASEY LAWSON

CLIENT EXECUTIVE

Casey Lawson joined the MJ Insurance team in 2014 as an account manager in our Benefits Consulting department and has since moved into the consultant role for our small business clients. Prior to joining MJ, Casey worked as an account manager for The LBL Group where he was responsible for renewal management, marketing, service and healthcare compliance.

In his current role, Casey oversees the service needs and acts as the day-to-day contact for our employee benefits clientele. He coordinates marketing activities and manages the entire renewal process for new and existing accounts. He is also responsible for claims management and billing inquiries as well as creating custom benefit communication material and employer healthcare compliance.
