

ED MOURNIGHAN

RISK MANAGEMENT CONSULTANT

Ed Mournighan joined MJ Insurance in 1975 and now serves as a risk management consultant in our Risk Management + Commercial Insurance department as well as a principal of the firm. Ed specializes in the construction, real estate development and surety bonding industries where he develops custom risk management solutions for these types of businesses.

With over four decades of industry experience, Ed focuses on aiding clients in overcoming operational challenges by helping them understand the crucial relationship between insurance coverage and cost. Ed enjoys meeting with his clients and working hard to gain insights into their company culture and goals to ultimately create risk management solutions that are designed to help meet these unique needs. His in-depth knowledge of the business and expertise in niche industries makes him an invaluable asset to the MJ team.

Outside of work, Ed spends time with his family, woodworking and playing golf. Not many people know that Ed is truly a great carpenter. One day, he would like to take his family to Scotland and play golf with his son in Ireland.
