

AMANDA SCHNETTLER

CLIENT ADVOCATE, RISK MANAGEMENT
+ PERSONAL INSURANCE

Amanda Schnettler has over ten years of insurance experience. Prior to working for MJ, Amanda held positions in numerous roles within the insurance industry that covered a wide array of responsibilities. She joined the MJ team in 2018 as a client advocate in our Risk Management + Commercial Insurance and Personal Insurance departments delivering outstanding customer service to risk management and personal insurance clientele. Amanda joined MJ primarily for our culture, purpose and passion for both our clients and our associates.

In her role as client advocate, Amanda is responsible for monitoring and managing the overall client experience. She works with the analytics, risk services and risk transfer teams to ensure uninterrupted execution of client strategy and customer service.

Outside of MJ Amanda loves to mountain bike, play violin, chess, tennis and pickle ball. Additionally, Amanda explores her artistic side in her free time by drawing or painting whatever comes to mind. She also enjoys traveling, and hopes to see as much of the world as she possibly can.
