

EMILY PERA

ASSISTANT ACCOUNT MANAGER

Emily Pera joined MJ Insurance in 2018 as an assistant account manager in our Benefits Consulting department. As an assistant account manager, Emily works with the analytics, wellness, compliance, communication and client advocacy teams to execute client healthcare and benefit strategies. Emily's responsibilities include assisting in the review of plan design summaries, working with client executives on renewal service contracts and execution, working with account managers in implementation of carrier, TPA, vendor change or addition of new lines of coverage, and preparing and distributing requests for proposal for all lines of group insurance coverage. Emily is additionally tasked with developing and maintaining productive relationships with carrier, TPA and vendor personnel.

Prior to joining MJ, Emily worked in the corporate health and wellness field as a health educator and wellness coordinator where she built relationships with employees to help them improve their health.

In her spare time, you can find Emily trying new fitness classes and cooking. Emily was previously a coach for Girls on the Run and hopes to volunteer with a hospice organization in the future.
