

ALI HARRIS

MARKETING + COMMUNICATIONS SPECIALIST

Ali Harris joined MJ Insurance in March of 2020 and serves as the marketing and communications specialist. In her role, Ali supports MJ's corporate marketing and communications department. Bringing over four years of experience, Ali previously worked for a nonprofit overseeing the marketing and management of a nationwide program.

At MJ, Ali uses her skillset in design to create visual and compelling content for both MJ clients and associates. She helps to deliver an exceptional employee experience through internal communications where she manages MJ's intranet, email newsletters, and helps MJ's internal departments and committees communicate various events and workshops. As the marketing and communications specialist, Ali creates valuable and visually appealing content for clients, prospective clients, and employees. Ali also utilizes her affinity for planning and her organizational skills to support MJ's educational series, InspireYOU.

Outside of the office, Ali has a passion for serving and making an impact in the community. As a previous 500 Festival Princess for the Indianapolis 500, Ali still enjoys volunteering with the 500 Festival during the month of May. Ali also enjoys painting and running when she isn't spending time with family and friends.
