

CAROL SCULLY

STRATEGIC RISK MANAGEMENT DIRECTOR

Carol J. Scully joined the MJ Insurance team in 2014 as strategic risk management director in the Risk Management + Commercial Insurance department. With over 20 years of global risk management experience, Carol oversees our comprehensive risk management initiatives and is MJ's Cyber Security Expert.

Carol previously worked as director of risk for several Fortune 100 companies and has extensive experience in heavy construction, healthcare, service and manufacturing, as well as the industrial robotic and CNC industries. With her extensive background in health, safety and risk management, she brings a broad background that provides innovative solutions to effectively manage our client's risk and realize opportunities for their success. Her specializations include: global risk management program development and implementation, crisis management and response, cyber loss prevention, and a keen understanding of the dynamic requirements impacting business operations. Carol recently received her Cyber COPE Insurance Certification (CCIC) from Chubb and Carnegie Mellon University. The CCIC enables Carol to understand the best practices in the cyber security risk management, governance and operations industry.

Outside of MJ, Carol loves to spend time with her family, work in the garden and participate in winter sports. A Pittsburgh girl, Carol cheers for the Penguins, Pirates and Steelers.
