

DEREK ACKERMAN

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS CONSULTANT

Derek Ackerman joined the MJ Insurance team in August of 2020 as an Employee Benefits Consultant in our Arizona Benefits Consulting department. Derek brings with him over a decade of industry experience. In his role, Derek works to provide value and unparalleled service to clients while helping to execute healthcare and benefit strategies in alignment with their unique company goals. His expertise lies in self-funding, wellness programs, predictive modeling, benchmarking, and marketing/placement.

Prior to MJ, Derek worked for a global risk management advisory, broking and solutions company. In his role as Senior Growth Consultant, he oversaw the development of new business and ongoing client service, utilizing solutions designed to help clients in the ever-changing world of benefits.

Outside of MJ, Derek is passionate about his family and traveling. He also enjoys playing golf and other outdoor games like cornhole, and bocci. Derek recently started playing Pickleball as well and has found it to be quite fun!
