MJ Insurance Continues Growth of Benefits Consulting Practice with Addition of Julie Bingham as Vice President, Total Rewards Consulting

MJ Insurance Expands Services to Include Compensation Consulting

INDIANAPOLIS (August 30, 2021) – MJ Insurance, a leading risk management and employee benefits agency for more than 50 years, today announced the hiring of Julie Bingham as Vice President of Total Rewards Consulting.

Bingham brings 20-plus years of experience in compensation consulting and human resource leadership roles to MJ. Julie has provided analytics, consulting and advisory services to Boards of Directors, Executive and Management teams as part of global human capital and local regional consulting firms, and in the corporate HR, Compensation and Rewards leadership positions she held throughout her career. Most recently Bingham served as Director of HR & Total Rewards at ADT.

At MJ, Bingham will provide specialized consulting services and in-depth benchmark data analytics to help clients evaluate their total compensation packages and develop innovative rewards programs that align with the organization's culture, talent market and strategic priorities. In partnership with the MJ Employee Benefits and Risk Management Consulting teams, Bingham will lead a team of analysts and rewards specialists to serve clients and the community.

“We are thrilled to take the next step to strengthen our Total Rewards toolkit at MJ with this talented new addition,” stated Andy Vektor, Executive Vice President, Employee Benefits at MJ insurance. “Julie’s background and depth of experience will allow us to continue to expand our capabilities and uniquely address total rewards consulting via an integrated approach to data analytics.”

MJ Insurance, one of the largest privately-held insurance agencies in America, is a commercial and personal insurance, risk management and employee benefits consulting agency that since 1964, has grown from a two-person start-up to an agency with more than 170 employees. With offices in both Phoenix and Indianapolis, MJ specializes in a diverse selection of service lines including construction, energy, transportation, manufacturing, sororities and recycling as well as a complete suite of employee benefits programs and services. MJ Insurance serves clients in more than 16 countries and in every U.S. state.
