

CAROLINE JENKINS

ASSISTANT ACCOUNT MANAGER

Caroline Jenkins joined MJ Insurance in 2021 as the assistant account manager in the Personal Lines department in our Phoenix, AZ office. She brings ample industry experience and specializes in personal lines insurance for high-net-worth individuals. Caroline also has expertise in advising on policy coverages, risk management services and loss prevention processes.

In her role at MJ, Caroline helps clients create personalized and comprehensive programs through planning, evaluating, implementing and managing their individual needs. In collaboration with the Personal Lines team, she utilizes her relational and organizational skills to develop and maintain productive relationships with key carrier partners.

Outside of the office, Caroline enjoys spending time with her family and friends along with her English bulldog named Ellie. In her free time, you can find her cycling, watching movies, cooking or baking. Caroline hopes to one day travel through Europe!
