

CINDY H. STELLHORN

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, SORORITY

Cindy H. Stellhorn joined MJ Insurance in 1998 and currently serves as the executive vice president of MJ's SorORITY Division. In her role, Cindy leads the MJ SorORITY Division, which provides premier resources to sororities and fraternal organizations seeking property and casualty insurance by helping them construct comprehensive and competitive insurance products.

With over four decades of experience, Cindy has expert knowledge in sororities and fraternal organizations. Cindy began her lifelong career in the insurance company ranks as an underwriter for CIGNA Property & Casualty Insurance Company and moved quickly up to the position of marketing vice president. Going then to the broker ranks, she joined Conseco Risk Management as the chief operating officer and broker of the SorORITY Division.

Cindy believes in giving back to the community and participates in several philanthropic organizations. She has served on the Boys & Girls Club board of Noblesville and is a past president of the Independent Insurance Agents of Central Indiana.

EDUCATION

Indiana University

INVOLVEMENT

MJ Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Advisory Council - Member

Fraternity & SorORITY Political Action Committee - Board Member/Past President

Fraternity & SorORITY Action Fund - Board Member/Past President

FAVORITE QUOTE

"Leadership is about making others better as a result of your presence and making sure that impact lasts in your absence."